

Miss Bushell's English Set 30.04.10

Arrgghh! Confused Claire is always getting her upper case letters and lower case letters mixed up. Her latest piece of work made her teacher, Mr Strict, so cross he turned purple!

Please help! Can you write out my work again, putting the capital letters where they should be, and the lower case letters where they should be, or else I'm in BIG trouble!

Capital letters are used for names of things and places. They are also used at the start of sentences.

Here are some capital and lower case letters to help you.

D d J j S s M m N n A a L l T t G g P p B b

Don't forget that some letters are tall and some hang below the line.

ronnie the raBBit was Busy eating Juicy orange caRrots in his caGe. as he Nibbled and crunched his carrots, Ronnie didn'T hear fluFfy the cat sNeaking up beHind him. when she got close enough, fluffy PrePared to Jump, Waiting for the riGht moment. Suddenly, Ronnie saW Fluffy out of the Corner of his eye, and jusT as Fluffy jumped, the rabbit turned his head, carrot sTicking out of his mouth. thwack! fluffy knocked Straight into the caRrot and Bounced back. ronnie giggLed and caRRied on munchinG, while Fluffy slipped out of sight And never came close tO a carrot ever Again.
