 NOTE: OTHERS WITH A PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY AS DEFINED BY THE CHILDREN ACT 1969

Parental responsibility may be shared between a number of people beyond the child's natural parents. Married parents have equal parental responsibility; on separation or divorce both parents continue to have responsibility. Unmarried fathers may acquire parental responsibility in one of five ways:

- a) by making a parental responsibility agreement with the mother;
- b) he may apply to Court for an order which gives him parental responsibility;
- c) by marrying the mother;
- d) by being made a guardian;
- e) by obtaining a residence order

I give consent for my child to go on outings and for emergency medical treatment whilst s/he is attending St Margaret's C of E Junior School. Should the necessity arise, I agree to the person in charge of the party giving consent on my behalf for an anaesthetic to be administered or for any other urgent medical treatment to be given.

I confirm that I have read the information in the prospectus about discipline; behaviour and school dress and agree to support the school's policy in these areas.
